Wishing you a

HAPPY

THANKSGIVING

& Holiday Season

We wanted to take a moment to let you know how thankful we are to have a congregation like you. We wish you and your family nothing but the best this Thanksgiving and throughout the holiday season.

Deacons

The Deacon Team for November is Charlotte Frith and Kay McCollum.
Please contact them if you need services of the Deacons-- prayers, cards, phone calls, visits, food, or transportation.

LifeQuest Honors Charlie Frith

On October 5, 2016, Charlie Frith was presented with the LifeQuest Jay Jernigan Award during the Founder's Day Luncheon. W. Jay Jernigan, Founder and Chairman Emeritus, started the Shepherd's Center of Little Rock (LifeQuest) in 1981 with the help of 11 area congregations and the Presbytery of Arkansas. In honor of a man whose mission improved the quality of life for thousands of Third Age adults in Arkansas, LifeQuest of Arkansas created the award to recognize a current volunteer whose contribution to LifeQuest represents the spirit of our esteemed founder, Jay Jernigan, in the following aspects:

- Significant contribution of volunteer time, talent and service to LifeQuest
- Extra effort and commitment as an ambassador for LifeQuest
- Impact of volunteer effort on LifeQuest's programs and participants
- Caliber of service or innovation to LifeQuest
- Creativity and contribution to LifeQuest's mission
- Role model for positive aging

Annual Ferncliff Picnic

The weather for the Ferncliff picnic was beautiful; sunshine, a light breeze and a temperature in the 70's. The Trimble House boys from the Vera Lloyd Monticello Campus attended the WHPC morning service and then joined us at the picnic. Mehmet Ulupinar and his family from the Rainbow Turkish House joined us, too. It could not have been a better day!

Presbyterian Women News

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

The new PW Moderators for next year are Betty Glenn and Mary Lois Stanfield. They begin their terms in January 2017.

Effective November 1, Donna Callaway and Vivianna McAtee are the new Memorials Chairmen. They will send memorial and honor cards and also thank donors.

PW made 16 compassion blankets for UAMS palliative care patients during an October work session following Sunday services. Thanks to everyone who helped cut and tie fleece.

Sunday, November 6 is the UAMS Hospice Care reception for families who have experienced the death of their loved ones. Once again PW will cater the event and provide volunteer assistance. The event begins at 3pm, but volunteers will arrive early to prepare for the reception. If you would like to help by preparing food or volunteering, please contact Donna Callaway.

Ho Ho Holiday Cheer!

Lyric Rogers and her marshmallow people from the Alternative Christmas Market

Rahab's Rope, an India based charity, will have jewelry and other items for sale.

Christmas, Hanukkah and Kwanzaa will all soon be here and you may fill your home with cheer by attending Westover's Alternative Christmas Market on Saturday, November 12 (9am-2pm) and Sunday, November 13 (11:30am-1pm). You may select from a stunning array of fabulous gifts – "gifts that give twice," since all proceeds benefit charity.

You will be able to purchase jewelry, ornaments, baked goods, calendars, pet toys, festive holiday cheer, hand crafted presents, books, exquisite broken china necklaces, or Fair Trade coffees. Or you can buy memorial/honor cards to support the Presbyterian Women compassion blanket ministry or "welcome home baskets" for families moving from shelters into new housing. Memorial/honor cards to support a student in the Pulaski County Regional Detention Center's literacy program will also be for sale.

While the kids get crafty on stage, the adults can look at the many booths and find not only holiday cheer, but festive ideas to kick start the holiday in a gentle and less commercial setting. Bring on the joy and the spirit of the season by starting your holiday with a trip to Westover's Fellowship Hall and the Alternative Christmas Market.

If you can volunteer for a shift, could make baked goods or need more information, please contact Nancy Passini at gonanago68@gmail.com

Family Promise Needs You!

Westover Hills will be hosting Family Promise families from Sunday, Dec. 4 till Sunday, Dec. 11. The weeks before Christmas are always filled with activities so hosting during this time can seem inconvenient and hectic. However, there is no better time to remind us to live as Jesus taught: loving our neighbor as we love ourselves.

For one week, Westover Hills will provide a home environment for 3 or 4 families who are temporarily homeless. We will give them a nutritious evening meal, a safe place for children to play, fellowship for us with them, access to a washer and dryer, and a private room for sleeping.

Soon we will be calling to schedule congregational members for meal preparation, afternoon hospitality time with children and adults, and overnight hosts.

A Baptism at Westover!

Haley June Hobbs, daughter of Allison Smith and Jason Hobbs, granddaughter of Bill and Joyce Smith and niece of Matt Smith and Lindsay Oliver, was baptized during the Sunday morning service on October 30. Welcome, Haley June!

Westover Mariners!

The Mariners will meet Friday, December 2, at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall for the annual White Elephant Gift Exchange and potluck. Mark your calendars--more details to follow!
